Summary:

The homes featured in Southern Sensibility embody the graciousness of Southern living while offering a balance between the time-honored past and everyday modern living.

There is a unique way of living in the South, a more gracious style with a modern twist. Sophisticated casual interiors with pops of color have always been Edith-Anne's design aesthetic, as well as a respect for heritage and history. Growing up as a child in the South, Edith-Anne's family home was filled with inherited furnishings mixed with modern touches of chinoiserie...

Summary:

A meticulously researched, comprehensive biography showcasing the work of Utah artist John Hafen, including over 200 images of the artist's work, along with 50+ photos and historical clippings.

In his short life as an artist, John Hafen (1856–1910) earned the title of Utah's "poet painter." He was a Latter-day Saint artist in a philosophical and evangelical sense, although he was not a painter of Christian genre, themes, or content. Rather, he searched for the universal and eternal beauty underlying the mountains and rural nature. While...

An ode to Christmas and Santa's workshop, this colorful, chunky, die-cut board book is a work of art meant to be displayed face-out on nursery bookshelves.

Welcome to Santa's workshop on Christmas Eve!

Wake up sleepy heads.
It's time to get up and bake cookies and gingerbread.
The little elves mix butter, sugar, and flour.
They are baking batches of treats by the hour.

Hard at work, each elf makes hundreds of toys. The workshop is full of excitement with building, painting, and lots of noise.

The gifts are stacking up as far as the eye can see...
